

#ESTUDOEMCASA

BLOCO N.º 17

ANO(S) 10.º e 11.º /
1.º e 2.º anos
de Formação

DISCIPLINA Inglês

APRENDIZAGENS ESSENCIAIS

COMPETÊNCIA COMUNICATIVA

Compreensão oral: compreender vários tipos de discurso e seguir linhas de argumentação dentro das áreas temáticas apresentadas.

Compreensão escrita: descodificar palavras-chave/ideias presentes no texto.

COMPETÊNCIA INTERCULTURAL

Reconhecer realidades interculturais distintas: manifestar interesse em conhecer outras sociedades e culturas e sobre elas realizar aprendizagens.

Título/Tema(s) do Bloco

Youth on the move

A. Choose the right answer.

1. Youth on the move means _____ .
 - a) waking up early and going to bed late
 - b) being committed to achieve one’s goals
 - c) practising a lot of sports

2. If you participate in a volunteering programme, ____ .
 - a) you get linguistic and training support
 - b) you don’t get any linguistic and training support
 - c) you get no financial support

B. What does “youth on the move” mean?

British English and American English

A. Choose the right answer.

1. "My roommate is in an exchange program in Greece."

This sentence is in:

- a) British English
- b) American English

2. If you go to the USA, you can find words like _____ .

- a) autumn and sweater
- b) fall and sweater
- c) autumn and jumper

B. Fill in the gaps with the missing words.

1. In the UK, you eat biscuits; in the USA, you eat _____.
2. In the UK, you wear trousers; in the USA, you wear _____.
3. In the UK, you take a lift; in the USA, you take an _____.
4. In the UK, you go to the cinema; in the USA, you go to the _____.
5. In the UK, you go on holiday; in the USA, you go on _____.
6. In the UK, you wait in a queue; in the USA, you wait in a _____.
7. In the UK, you put petrol in your car; in the USA, you put _____ in your car.
8. In the UK, you drive a lorry; in the USA, you drive a _____.